Welcome!

On behalf of the citizens of Baltimore, welcome to Baltimore Pride 2017.

Each year on Pride Weekend, Baltimore’s LGBTQ community demonstrates the welcoming, inclusive spirit that makes our city an inviting place for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities.

Over the past 42 years, the celebration has evolved from a small rally of activists to become Maryland’s largest LGBTQ festival, with projected attendance of over 20,000 throughout the weekend.

This year’s celebration features a variety of activities, including Twilight on the Terrace on Friday night; Saturday’s parade, high heel race and block party; and Sunday’s Pride Festival in Druid Hill Park.

This year, I invite you to join me in celebrating the individuality, diversity, and PRIDE that make Baltimore unique. Best wishes for a memorable Pride Weekend!

Sincerely,

Catherine E. Pugh
Mayor

A Letter To Our Community

June 17, 2017

Dear Community,

As we observe Pride in Baltimore in 2017, we are forced to recognize why observing Pride continues to be important. In Baltimore, our celebration transcends the parties, parades and performances. In Baltimore, our celebration is much more than bright colors, loud music and flashy outfits. In Baltimore, our Pride is a celebration of survival. We celebrate that, in spite of injustice, corruption, hatred or apathy, we continue to exist, we continue to grow, we continue to mobilize, we continue to love one another, and we continue to love ourselves.

As someone who is both black and gay, I welcome you to Pride 2017 knowing how self-love can be difficult at times. I am constantly bruised from the intentional work of wrecking balls. For many in Baltimore, dodging demolition is a daily thing. We honor and remember those who, due to the violence in biased policing, alternative facts, media depictions, housing instability, and food insecurity, will not celebrate Pride with us this year.

This year’s theme, Pride Unleashed, remarks on our commitment to challenge old methods, to dismantle archaic structures, to break with tradition, to work boldly and to live freely. As Baltimore’s LGBTQ community center, we dedicate our resources to addressing the needs of our community’s and our city’s most underserved. Our work will always be centered on the needs and experiences of black people, brown people, transgender and gender-diverse people, young people, people with disabilities, seniors, and those living with HIV/AIDS. It will require the compassion and care of people of all races, all genders, all ages and all abilities to do this work well. I challenge you to learn where you fit in this mission.

From the 2017 Baltimore Pride Planning Committee, the Board of Directors, the Staff and Volunteers of the GLBT Community Center of Baltimore, we wish you a brave, bold, beautiful celebration of Pride in Baltimore.

Genuinely yours,

Jabari M. Lyles
President

We stand in solidarity with Baltimore’s LGBTQ community.

Thank you to the GLCCB for leading the fight for inclusion and equality for the LGBTQ community in Maryland.

Whether at work, at home, or in the community;

No matter who we are, or how we love:

We Are One Baltimore.
• EVERYONE KNOWS YOUR NAME
Residents always feel right at home with a community that knows them (and sometimes their pet!) by name.

• A STRONG SENSE OF COMMUNITY LIVES ON
RPP offers a strong sense of "community" where everyone has a feeling of belonging and there are no strangers. Residents are well-connected and welcomed neighbors at RPP.

• EVERY VOICE IS HEARD
Resident committees, groups, fitness classes, and associations thrive in small, intimate and friendly gatherings where every voice can be heard and there are plenty of opportunities to get to know staff and neighbors, alike.

• NEW INTERESTS ARE CELEBRATED.
RPP offers unique activities abound for residents with interests as diverse as politics, art, outdoor recreation, music, and more, and residents are never alone in trying something new.

• CULTURAL ATTRACTIONS
The Meyerhoff (home of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra), The Lyric (home of the Baltimore Opera Company), Center Stage, Walters Art Museum, Baltimore Museum of Art

• SHOPPING
The Rotunda, Shops at Cross Keys, Mt. Washington Village Shops, Hampden Village shops, Eddie's on Roland Avenue, and other fine shops
